

FIRST HEAT VICTIM OF 1917.

Aged William Lovett Overcome While Watching Parade.

The first heat prostration of the season was that of William Lovett, seventy-four years old, of No. 306 East Twenty-sixth Street, who was overcome at Eighty-sixth Street and Riverside Drive yesterday afternoon while watching the parade.

He was attended by Dr. Haas of the Knickerbocker Hospital and taken to his home.

FELT LIKE A NEW PERSON

After Taking Only One Box Of 'Fruit-a-tives'

East Ship Harbour, N. S.

"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' For years I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches."

Mrs. MARTHA DE WOLFE.

Registration and Selective Draft Questions Answered

The requirements of the law governing the selective draft are simple as regards registration, June 5. All men except those actually in the service of the army, Army Reserve, National Guard, navy, Naval Militia, Naval Reserve and Marines, who have reached, June 5, their twenty-first birthday and have not reached their thirty-first birthday MUST REGISTER. There are no exceptions except those noted above. Absence from home, illness, foreign citizenship, whether in a neutral or enemy nation, employment in munition factories—none of them excuses a man within the age limits from registering.

Exemptions from service will be granted after registration in the discretion of the boards appointed for that purpose. The selection of men for the army and navy from among those not exempted will be by lot.

Some of the hundreds of questions which readers of The Evening World have submitted are answered as authoritatively as possible below. There are many inquiries from men who state they caused their ages to be stated wrongly in various public records and that their correct ages exempt them from registration. Such men are advised to explain the mistaken records to the registration board if they wish to avoid the risk of serious trouble.

Q. I am secretly married. I do not want my mother to know, as I promised not to. Do you think she will find it out when I register or if I am called out on a draft? A. It is not unlikely. Better own up now. You will be required to fill out a blank with the facts.

Q. We are brothers, within the age limit, born in the United States, the sole support of our aged father and mother. My business is worth $10,000. I have epileptic convulsions, but otherwise perfect health. If I am drafted my business and my brother's business will be forced into bankruptcy. Am I to be drafted? If so, who will pay our debts? Will we be known as bankrupts? A. You must both register if within the age limits. Epileptics will be excused from draft. Your brother may be called.

Q. Can I register on June 5? I am thirty years of age, born in the United States, convicted of a felony this year. A. You must register.

Q. I am twenty-two years and married; I have no children. Would I be drafted? A. You must register. If your name is drawn you may be drafted. You may ask for exemption, but it may not be granted.

Q. Kindly inform if I will have to register on June 5? I am nineteen years of age and I am told that the State registration calls for sixteen to fifty inclusive. A. No. This is a Federal, not a State registration.

Q. Suppose last registration a man gave his age as, say, twenty-eight or twenty-nine, and he now finds that he is thirty-one or over. Must he go to the registration place and inform the clerks of this mistake? A. It is best. Unfortunately, persons who wish to cheat their country may make similar claims but untruthfully. They will be rigidly investigated.

Q. I will be thirty-one July 15. Must I register? A. Yes.

Q. (1) I am an Austro-Hungarian twenty-four years old; came to this country at the age of five. My father is naturalized. I have not voted, but have intentions to vote. (2) My brother came to this country from Austria, is twenty-one years old in August; his birth certificate is lost; we have tried, but cannot obtain another one? What is the best thing to do to make the authorities believe his age? A. (1) You cannot vote as a citizen of the United States and claim exemption as an Austro-Hungarian without serious consequences. Tell the truth and let it be to the board. (2) Tell the truth.

Q. (1) Can the Government compel a citizen of the United States to register abroad? (2) Would a married man be exempt if he has to support his wife, his father and help support a sick brother? A. (1) It can. (2) If the Government sees fit to grant the exemption he claims.

Q. Could I answer "Yes" to the question in the registration sheet, "Are you a citizen?" as I am taking out my second papers second day after registration. A. It would be better to answer, "No, but I will be, day after tomorrow."

Q. I was born in 1897 in Italy and when I got the first paper by mistake they dated it 1896. Do you think that I should register June 5? A. Go to the Registry Board and explain the mistake.

Q. I was born June 5, 1886. I will be thirty-one years old June 5, 1917. Must I register June 5, 1917? A. You must.

Q. I served three years in the United States Army and was discharged three years ago at the end of my enlistment. Am I liable to military service under the Selective Draft Act? A. Yes.

Q. (1) If a person has been rejected by the National Guard because of physical defects, will he still be subject to the draft? (2) Will any of those who are drafted be rejected if not physically fit? (3) Will the rules of physical examination be the same as those for the Regular Army? A. (1) He must register. (2) Yes. (3) For the present.

Q. (1) Do men now enlisted in Reserve Engineers for service in France, but not yet called, have to register June 5? (2) Can they enlist in the navy or marines without permission or red tape? (3) Want action. Can't get it. A. (1) If you have sworn to your enlistment you need not register. (2) Not without getting into trouble. (3) You are going to get action; don't fret.

Q. Is a man who is an Austrian and has first papers subject to draft? A. He must register. The status of "declarants" after registration has not yet been announced.

Q. I volunteered for the United States Navy and was rejected. Is it necessary to register? A. Yes.

Q. (1) I have varicose veins in my left leg; would same exempt me from military duty? (2) Can the Government order me to be operated on for the above? A. (1) Probably, but you must register. (2) It might, but probably would not.

Q. Am twenty-three years old and have a stepfather who gives my mother $13 per week. As my salary permits me to help with a little extra, she considers me her main support and wants me to claim exemption. A. A woman with a wage-earning husband is not legally "dependent" on her son.

Q. Where must I register? I have been living in the Bronx up to Saturday last and am now located at Edgemere, Rockaway Beach, L. I. Find the polling place nearest your new home. Ask a policeman.

Q. I am twenty-seven years old. I was engaged before war was declared and expect to get married next month. Do you think I will be drafted? A. You must register. Those needed for the army will be drawn by lot.

Q. I am twenty-five years old, was born in the United States, as were both of my parents, who died when I was very young. I am not sure of the State in which I was born. Would it be all right for the answer to the fifth question to simply write "United States"? A. Yes.

Q. (1) I came to this country when I was nineteen years old and my father was an American citizen at that time, but as he is dead now and his papers are lost, will I get in trouble if I answer "Yes" at the registration and I can't prove it? (2) Can I vote at the next election without any papers to show? A. (1) Not unless somebody can prove to the contrary. (2) Yes, unless your statement is disproved.

Q. My first name has been changed since taking out my first naturalization papers and I am not known by that other name. By what name am I to register? A. Give the name by which your neighbors know you. Explain to the Registry Board about the other.

Q. I am a native born, twenty-three years of age, and have voted under my family name, which is Jack Robinson. I have been known as Robin to my friends, as well as to my business associates for five years. Kindly let me know if it is illegal to register as Robin, as I am doing it in good faith. A. No. See answer to question above.

Q. My twenty-first birthday occurs on June 8. I have my first papers. Must I register on the 5th? A. If you have not reached your twenty-first birthday June 5, you must not register. You may volunteer now.

Q. (1) Will the Government take over the railroads? (2) Will men of the first draft, twenty-one to thirty, who are doing police duty for the railroads under the police department of the railroads be exempt from military duty? (3) Will soldiers take their places? A. (1) Not at present. (2) No. (3) If necessary.

Q. I was born June 7, 1886. Will I not be compelled to register? A. Says yes. B. No. The President's proclamation says "June 5, twenty-one to thirty-one, inclusive." A. You will not be thirty-one until June 7. A is right. You must register. The President named one day for registration, June 5, for men who have reached their twenty-first birthday and have not reached their thirty-first birthday on that day.

Q. I was born on July 25, 1887. Do I have to register? A. Yes. You have not reached your thirty-first birthday.

MYSTERY IN HOBOKEN CASE.

Minch Arrested for Haste in Meeting Ship at Pier.

Mystery attaches to the arrest of a man describing himself as Peter Minch, thirty-six years old, of No. 120 Hudson Street, Hoboken, who is being held at Hoboken Headquarters in $1,000 bail. Minch is said to have scaled a fence around a pier where a neutral liner was docking yesterday and handed a note to a passenger who got away unquestioned. Minch says he jumped the fence because he could not get through the Customs line and he wanted to meet his wife. He was captured after a chase. The Customs men say there was no Mrs. Minch on board the boat.
